Oh no,... that was a mistake then... can I get a refund ?!! I thought I was buying a blender not a warranty. I don't need a warranty for a blender I don't have ?!!

Did you order from Blendtec or Blendjet? We are two different companies. As you can see from the email you sent us, we only show a purchase for an extended warranty but no actual blender purchase.

Hello, you recently purchased one of our extended warranties with your order #WEB44641. Our records don't indicate that you currently own a machine to which we can apply this warranty. Can you register your machine on our website (<https://www.blendtec.com/pages/register-product>) so we can apply the extended warranty?
